COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides students with an understanding of the concepts and techniques of policy analysis, ideological and economics factors influencing policy and key structures, policies and issues in Canadian social policy and how social workers can affect policy change. This course will offer students an opportunity to develop a familiarity with some foundational concepts and paradigms in social policy and apply them in 'real world' analysis. After a brief overview of social policy responsibilities of various levels of government, the aim of the initial sections of the course is to familiarize students with basic concepts and theories essential to an informed and effective analysis. The latter sections will focus on specific areas of contemporary policy and 'real world' aspects of policy analysis, development and lobbying. The aim of the latter sections is to school students in the process and practice of analysis and to familiarize them with core social policy areas. Finally, the course aims to give students some understanding of how social workers and others can effect policy change. For reference, access to the full course outline is available from our website www.socialwork.ubc.ca. Syllabus is subject to change as course proceeds.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

“Regular attendance is expected of students in all their classes (including lectures, laboratories, tutorials, seminars, etc.). Students who neglect their academic work and assignments may be excluded from the final examinations. Students who are unavoidably absent because of illness or disability should report to their instructors on return to classes.” (UBC Calendar)

Academic Dishonesty: Please review the UBC Calendar “Academic regulations” for the university policy on cheating, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty. Also visit www.arts.ubc.ca and go to the students’ section for useful information on avoiding plagiarism and on correct documentation.

Retaining Assignments: Students should retain a copy of all submitted assignments (in case of loss) and should also retain all their marked assignments in case they wish to apply for a Review of Assigned Standing. Students have the right to view their marked examinations with their instructor, providing they apply to do so within a month of receiving their final grades. This review is for pedagogic purposes. The examination remains the property of the university.

COURSE POLICIES

ATTENDANCE

The attendance policy is in the student handbook on page 11: <https://socialwork.ubc.ca/current-students/>.

The School considers class attendance to be an essential component of integrated learning in professional social work education. Therefore, regular attendance is required in all social work courses. Instructors may count repeated late arrivals or early departures as an absence, and a meeting should be setup to discuss this with the student.

The University accommodates students with disabilities who have registered with Access and Diversity. Students, who will require accommodation for attendance due to disability, are encouraged to inform the instructor, and if necessary, to contact Access and Diversity preferably not later than the first week of class. The School will also accommodate religious observance, according to University Policy 65, and students are expected to inform the instructor. Students who wish to be accommodated for unavoidable absences due to varsity athletics, family obligations, or other similar commitments, must notify their instructors in writing at least two weeks in advance, and preferably earlier. This reflects expectations for professional social workers in their place of employment.

If students miss three or more classes, they may be considered to have not met the requirements of the course. If students have valid reasons, they could be withdrawn from the course with the approval of the instructor – otherwise, they would fail the course.

SUBMITTING ASSIGNMENTS:

Please submit your assignment to both the TA and instructor by email. Please send it as a .doc, .docx file. PDF files will not be marked. Hardcopies of assignments are not required. We will not acknowledge receipt of your email/ assignment. We will, however, get in touch with those who do not submit assignments.

RETURN OF MARKED STUDENT ASSIGNMENTS:

Instructors coordinate the return of marked assignments. We will mark your assignment electronically with track changes and return it to you by the same email you sent it to us.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS:

Late submissions will result to a deduction of the grade of your assignment. The rule of deduction is 2% a day. Any assignment that is more than a week late will not be accepted. Extensions will only be granted in cases of personal illness or family issues and not because of academic or employment workloads or conflicts. Extensions must be requested in far advance of the due date of the assignment.

FORMAT OF THE COURSE:

Each class will incorporate lectures, large and small group discussion or activities, and opportunities for individual reflection. You are encouraged to share ideas, personal experiences, academic resources and perspectives to expand upon the topics discussed. My role as the instructor is to present the key theoretical frameworks necessary to facilitate critical inquiry. Respectful dialogue is expected so that together we can create a safe and productive environment for learning.

Each Group member will select 2-3 'media hits' on an issue relevant to social policy to present and discuss with their group. Media hits should be sent to the group members, TA and Instructor along with a brief synopsis (250 words Max.) Value: 10%

- 4) Assignment # 3 GROUP PRESENTATIONS

This assignment is intended to allow students to examine a contemporary area or issue of social policy and to develop critical skills in analysis and presentation of policy issues in a clear and concise manner. Each group will be required to present a thirty minute presentation including at least 5 mins. For questions. Your group presentation will be done with a 'Ministerial working group' that you will join in the second class. Hypothetically, each Ministerial working group will be making their presentation to the Prime Minister and Cabinet colleagues (or equivalent). Each Ministerial working group will be making the case and advocating for a significant policy initiative within their portfolio that the Minister wants to be central to the upcoming policy agenda. While each group may differ in their approach on how to present and which points to emphasize, presentations must contain the following elements in making their case:

- An overview of the policy area
- Key stakeholders
- Federal/Provincial/Other responsibilities
- International comparisons
- Policy positions of major political parties
- Legislative base
- Economic issues
- An analysis of current policy initiatives and key issues
- Policy alternatives and recommendation
- Social facts such as statistics and testimonials
- And any other evidence to support your Ministry's case.

You may divide your presentation up into sections but it should have a coherent approach. Brief handouts, Powerpoint and/or other visuals are encouraged. The presentation as a whole should NOT be a reiteration of work from other assignments. At the end of all of the presentations, the Prime Minister will get the caucus (aka the class) to vote on which policy initiatives should be undertaken as the new mandate.

The Ministries or sub ministries can be drawn from either federal, provincial or municipal governments covering one of the following areas (Note some topics will cut across jurisdictions i.e. housing-if so choose where you are located but reference other jurisdictions as required.):

Marking will be based on three primary criteria worth: how rigorous (well researched) is the content of the presentation; how well reasoned and supported is the case made for the policy initiative; and how persuasive and compelling is the overall presentation.

Each group will have 5-6 members.

Presentations will take place the final two classes.

Value: 25%

- 5) Assignment #4: Written Policy Report: Select and examine a social policy issue and provide a detailed analysis in report form. DUE DATE: December 3rd. Length: 2500 words (excluding references). Value 40%
