School Vision: Building upon a foundation of social justice and an ethic of care, we are a community of learners actively engaged in the development of critical, transformative knowledge for social work practice.

BSW Mission Statement: The Bachelor of Social Work (BSW) program addresses issues of power and issues of discrimination based on age, race, gender, sexual orientation, class and culture. The educational objective of the BSW curriculum is to provide students with the knowledge, values and skills necessary for an initial level of professional practice, focusing on the interface between personal problems and public issues. Critical thinking and structural analysis are central to the learning experience offered by the School and to the promotion of social justice and human well-being.

During this pandemic, the shift to online learning has greatly altered teaching and studying at UBC, including changes to health and safety considerations. Keep in mind that some UBC courses might cover topics that are censored or considered illegal by non-Canadian governments. This may include, but is not limited to, human rights, representative government, defamation, obscenity, gender or sexuality, and historical or current geopolitical controversies. If you are a student living abroad, you will be subject to the laws of your local jurisdiction, and your local authorities might limit your access to course material or take punitive action against you. UBC is strongly committed to academic freedom, but has no control over foreign authorities (please visit http://www.calendar.ubc.ca/vancouver/index.cfm?tree=3,33,86,0 for an articulation of the values of the University conveyed in the Senate Statement on Academic Freedom). Thus, we recognize that students will have legitimate reason to exercise caution in studying certain subjects. If you have concerns regarding your personal situation, consider postponing taking a course with manifest risks, until you are back on campus or reach out to your academic advisor to find substitute courses. PREREQUISITE and/or COREQUISITE

There is no pre-requisite SOWK course for 310A.

PANDEMIC CHANGES

Given the Covid-19 pandemic, the University of British Columbia has directed all UBC programs to redesign most courses to be delivered online (COVID-19 UBC’s approach to the fall term, UBC Broadcast, May 11, 2020). As a result, this course has been redesigned to be delivered online as well as for face to face.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides students with a foundation of the values, knowledge and skills used to communicate in a professional social work context. The course will focus on a counselling session as a means to understand and apply the skills of ethical and effective interpersonal communication within a helping relationship. The skills of attending and focusing will be given primary emphasis, and skills of intervention, secondary emphasis.

Through assigned readings, lecture and class discussion, role-play, video recording and other exercises, students will be introduced to the core values, principles and skills of interpersonal communication. Emphasizing experiential learning and reflective practice, the course is designed to assist students to make conscious use of a range of communication skills.

The salience of race, culture, gender and class, as well as tailoring conversations to the specific needs of the individuals and systems within which we work, will constitute a primary emphasis of the course. Various feedback opportunities will be utilized to enable students to explore and critically evaluate their developing skills in a variety of contexts.

This course serves as a preparation for all field education courses. This course is closely related to the SOWK 305I Topics in social work practice course. The knowledge, values and skills in interpersonal communication will be integrated with the generalist approach to social work practice.

COURSE STRUCTURE AND LEARNING ACTIVITIES:

This class is being offered in person and online to accommodate students’ preferences to the best of our ability. Classes will vary depending on the format of teaching and may include dyads, triads, small and large group discussions, lectures, demonstrations, and video recordings.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Students will develop an awareness of self in a professional helping context by:
   - identifying and building upon their own unique communication style
   - becoming aware of the conditions which inhibit or facilitate ethical and effective communication.
2. Students will acquire beginning skills in communicating clearly and effectively in a professional helping context. Some of these skills include:
   - listening, probing, clarifying, reflecting
   - initiating and developing relationships
3. Students will acquire beginning skills in communicating cross-culturally, embracing diversity and addressing structural factors that influence the counselling process, including race, culture, gender, class and role expectations.
4. Students will acquire beginning communication skills which respect human rights and promote dignity.
5. Students will develop self awareness in regard to the values, knowledge and skills used to communicate in a professional social work context.
6. Students will understand communication and basic counselling in the context of the BCCSW/ BCASW Social Work Code of Ethics.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK or LEARNING MATERIAL

There is an e-version of this textbook that can rented via the bookstore or Vital Source ($59) or a hard copy text can be ordered via amazon (much more expensive).

ASSIGNMENTS:

ASSIGNMENTS FOR TERM 1:

The assignments for this term are one self reflection assignment and two video recordings. All assignments are due at 11pm on the due date. The two recorded sessions will be confidential. Only the dyad and the instructors will have access to them. The videos can be submitted via an unlisted youtube video or through Canvas.

If concerns about a recorded session and/or analysis arise, the course instructor may consult with the other SOWK 310 class instructors and/or the Chair of the BSW Program. In the case of an appeal, the student’s permission will be sought for further review of the recording.

1. Self reflection assignments Weight = 15%
   Due: Sept 21st, 2020
Self reflection assignments are an opportunity to develop self awareness and to critically analyze your own attitudes, beliefs, behavior and feelings in relation to how they impact your communication in a professional helping context.

Please write a 5 page (double spaced) self assessment of your current communication skills and your current feelings about taking on a counselling role. Your reflection should have an introduction and a conclusion.

Some questions to consider:

1) Comment on your current listening skills and discuss your current use of eye contact, body language, and ability to express your ideas clearly.
2) Discuss your level of comfort with emotions. How well can you interpret, understand, act upon and share your own emotions. How well you can interpret, understand and respond to the emotions of others.
3) What values or beliefs do you have that might impact your role as a counsellor?
4) What appeals to you and/or what concerns/ worries do you have about taking on a counselling role?

Criteria for Evaluation: Please refer to Marking Rubric in Canvas

2. Video assignment #1 (skills of chapters 1 – 3) Weight= 15% Due: October 5th, 2020

This assignment is an opportunity for you to demonstrate use of the communication skills you are learning (chapters 1-3) within the context of a beginning/exploratory session. You will work with a classmate. You will demonstrate the beginning of a counselling session. Specifically, the recording should demonstrate; engaging with your client, introducing yourself and your agency, explaining the agency confidentiality policy including a clear explanation of your legal limits to absolute confidentiality, relationship and work contracting. If time allows, you will engage in some issue exploration.

You will record your session and submit a 10 minute video. Your instructor will give you further direction about this assignment in class.

Review your recording, and write a brief analysis, no more than four typed pages (double spaced), outlining your perception of your use of the basic communication and counselling skills using the headings outlined below. Your paper should include an introduction and a conclusion. Papers that are longer than four double spaced typed pages will not be accepted.

Headings:

1) Analysis of use of self (including, but not limited to: preliminary stage considerations internal “voice,” triggers, objectivity etc)
2) Strengths and areas for improvement
3) Conclusion (critically analyze/comment on the overall effectiveness of the session)

Criteria for Evaluation: Please refer to Marking Rubric in Canvas
3. Video assignment #2 (skills of chapters 1 – 6 (not 5) Weight = 20% Due: November 30, 2020

This assignment is another opportunity for you to demonstrate use of communication skills you are learning within the context of a longer more exploratory counselling session.

Select a different partner to work with from video #1 (but make sure this same partner is available for second term assignment #1). Counsel your partner about an issue he or she is currently experiencing and record your session for submission to your instructor. This video will include all of the skills required in the first video (introduction, engagement, limits to confidentiality, relationship contracting and work contracting and 15 minutes of issue exploration). Indicate at the start of your paper what time you finish contracting and begin issue exploration (i.e. At 5:10 minute mark, issue exploration begins). Your instructor will give you further instructions about this assignment in class.

It is not the purpose of this counselling session to solve the problem or to give advice. The intention is for you to demonstrate the skills you are reading about and practicing in class up to and including the end of Chapter 6 (excluding chapter 5).

Review your recording and write a brief analysis, (focusing on the issue exploration) of no more than four typed pages (double spaced), outlining your perception of your basic communication and counselling skills, using the headings below. Your paper should include an introduction and a conclusion. Submit the analysis and the video to your instructor. Papers that are longer than four double spaced typed pages will not be accepted.

Headings:

1) Analysis of use of self (including, but not limited to: preliminary stage, internal “voice,” nonverbal language, triggers, objectivity)
2) Strengths and areas for improvement
3) Conclusion (critically analyze/comment on the overall effectiveness of the session)

Criteria for Evaluation: Please refer to Marking Rubric in Canvas

ASSIGNMENTS FOR TERM 2:

The assignments for this term are a peer feedback assignment, one video and a final reflection. All assignments are due at 11pm on the due date. The recorded session will be confidential. Only the dyad and the instructors will have access to them.

If concerns about a recorded session and/or analysis arise, the course instructor may consult with the other SOWK 310A class instructors and/or the Chair of the BSW Program. In the case of an appeal, the student’s permission will be sought for further review of the tape.

1. Peer feedback assignment Weight = 10% Due: January 25th, 2021
Peer feedback has been well documented as benefitting student learning as it allows students to be active in their learning process, boosts their evaluative and self reflection skills. The purpose of this assignment is to increase your evaluative skills by both self assessing your own work and giving you exposure to feedback and an opportunity to provide formalized feedback to your peers. You will also reflect on the peer feedback on your developing skills and discuss how you will incorporate it into your future skill development.

Step #1 During class, all students will record one of their practice sessions for 10 minutes. (You are not being marked on this recording.) You will then upload this practice session to CLAS.

Step #2 Each student will review their own video and make 5 annotations of feedback on their own work using the “Guide for Giving Peer Feedback” we have been using in class.

Step #3. Each student will be assigned 3 other videos to review and give 5 annotated comments on each tape using the "giving feedback guide" we have been using in class.

Step #4. Each students will then review the peer feedback received on their own video recording and write a 2 page reflection on how this formalized feedback will be integrated into their communication skill development.

Students will be marked on the quality of their feedback given to their peers (5%) and on the reflection of how they will incorporate the feedback they have received (5%).

The practice sessions will be taped on January 4th, 2021. Students will review and reflect on their own tape by January 8th. Peer feedback will be open on January 8-15th and needs to be completed by January 15th. The two page reflection on how you will incorporate your peer feedback will be due on January 25th.

Criteria for Evaluation: Please refer to Marking Rubric in Canvas

2. Video assignment #3 (skills of chapters 1 – 7) Weight = 15% Due: March 1, 2021

This assignment is an opportunity for you to demonstrate use of the communication skills you are learning within the context of a second counselling session. There are two sections to this assignment: 1) video recording, 2) transcription.

1) Section 1: Video Recording: You will be working with the same partner you had for the video recording #2 from last term, and will be starting this tape where the other one left off. Treat this recording as a “second session” with your client. Please review your previous video (do not review the video with your partner, review the video on your own), and then record a session of between 20 – 25 minutes in real time. This video recording is intended for you to demonstrate the skills we have been learning about and practicing in class up to and including the end of Chapter 7.

2) Section 2:Transcription

Please transcribe 10 minutes of the video (your choice of which 10 minutes, within the issue exploration/problem solving section), following the transcription guidelines below. The instructor will review the format with you in class.

Transcription Guidelines: Please create a table with 2 columns as seen below. Include the start and end time of your transcription.

For the transcription, please include an introductory paragraph and a concluding paragraph outlining your learning from this transcription.
● Skill(s) used
  ○ Please be specific, for example, instead of writing out “question” say if it was open, closed or indirect, and instead of writing out “empathy” say if it was basic, invitational or inferred.
  ○ Please refer to tables 2.2 and 2.3 in Shebib for a comprehensive list of skills.

● Effectiveness – comment on the extent to which your response was effective or ineffective.

● Alternate response
  ○ An alternate response is not necessary to write out every single time, but for at least some of your responses, especially the less skilled ones, you should be writing out verbatim what you would have liked to say or a more skilled response.

Also, please acknowledge your use of simple encouragers and non-verbal communication, such as head nods and fidgets, in your transcription.

You do not need to analyze or comment on your client’s responses. For your client’s responses, please only write out the first few words they speak, then “…” (ellipses) then the last few words.

Example: (please make your transcript in a table format with columns and rows)

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Transcription</th>
<th>Identify skill used, analyze effectiveness of response and possible alternate response</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>SW: (Head nod) I wonder what emotions you are feeling when you react to your mother that way. (Wave right hand).</td>
<td>Skill(s) used: Indirect question. Invitational empathy. Effectiveness: I think this was an effective response because she had discussed her behavior towards her mother but had not talked about how she was feeling. Another domain I might have explored is the “thinking” domain. My nonverbal cues demonstrated skillful attending except I think my hand wave was distracting rather than helpful. Alternate response: What do you say to yourself when you react to your mother this way?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C: I feel like… So that is why I act that way.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Criteria for Evaluation: Please refer to Marking Rubric in Canvas

3. Final Self Reflection Due Monday April 10th, 2021

This paper should answer the question: "What have I learned about myself in relation to my communication skills and my role as a counsellor since the beginning of this course”. Your paper should include an introduction and conclusion. Contrast your current skills, knowledge and values with those you had at the beginning of the course. You can comment on your current listening skills and discuss your use of eye contact, body language, and ability to express your ideas clearly. Another area to address is your current comfort with emotions. How well can you interpret, understand, act upon and share your own emotions? How well you can interpret, understand and respond to the emotions of others? Please also discuss how your values and beliefs that impact your role as a counsellor have changed? Finally, please identify concerns about any areas you think you need to improve in the coming academic year. The paper should be 6 pages (double spaced).

Criteria for Evaluation: Please refer to Marking Rubric in Canvas

SCHOOL/COURSE POLICIES:

Attendance

The attendance policy is in the student handbook on page 11: https://socialwork.ubc.ca/current-students/.

The School considers class attendance to be an essential component of integrated learning in professional social work education. Therefore, regular attendance is required in all social work courses. Instructors may count repeated late arrivals or early departures as an absence, and a meeting should be setup to discuss this with the student. If students miss three or more classes, they may be considered to have not met the requirements of the course. If students have valid reasons, they could be withdrawn from the course with the approval of the instructor – otherwise, they would fail the course.

Academic Honesty and Integrity: All work submitted in this course must be your own and it must be produced specifically for this course. (If you wish to incorporate some of your prior work into a course assignment, you must have prior approval of the Instructors). All sources used in your work (ideas, quotes, paraphrases, etc.) must be properly acknowledged and documented. It is plagiarism to lift words, sentences, and paragraphs from websites, books and journals or to summarize another person’s ideas and present them as yours without proper citations. It is plagiarism to use another student’s work (current or past) as your own. Violations of academic honesty will be taken seriously. Please review the UBC Calendar “Academic regulations” for the university policy on cheating, plagiarism, and other forms of academic dishonesty. Also visit www.arts.ubc.ca and go to the students’ section for useful information on avoiding plagiarism and on correct documentation. Consequences may include failure in the course and suspension from your academic program.

Access and Disability Accommodations: UBC School of Social Work and the Instructor/Teaching Assistant for this course are committed to providing accommodations for students with disabilities. Accommodations are collaborative efforts between students, faculty, and the Centre for Accessibility. Students with accommodations approved through the Centre for Accessibility Office are responsible for contacting the course instructors prior to or during the first week of the term to discuss accommodations. Students who believe they are eligible for accommodations but who have not yet registered with the Centre for Accessibility should do so immediately:
